

The Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law (MPIL) opens a call for a

Student Assistant
(as of 1st October 2021; for 12 months)

to assist in the project MAGGI: The Multiplication of Authorities in Global Governance Institutions

(max. 8 hrs. / week)

Reference number: ST-Mende

Project: The researcher group MAGGI is generally concerned with global governance and institutions, authority, and public interests <https://www.mpil.de/en/pub/research/projects/research-groups/the-multiplication-of-authorit.cfm>.

Tasks: The student assistant complements and supports our research team in the following capacities: language editing, event planning, literature search in the areas of International Relations and International Law (prior knowledge is an asset but not necessary). To support the researchers' academic writing, the student assistant edits journal articles and book drafts, checks references and footnotes, and formats the text. The ability to comprehensively revise and edit English and German academic writing is crucial. The student should be well-organized and have an interest in relevant academic debates.

Requirements: The applicant should be fluent in German and English and ideally obtain a social science background and excellent writing skills.

We offer an interdisciplinary and international working environment in which you can make first-hand academic experiences. Payment follows public university standard for student assistants which is either 12 € or 13,95 € depending on university degree. The position is initially thought for 12 months with the possibility of extension. Place of work is Heidelberg and/ or home office.

The Max-Planck Society is committed to increasing the number of individuals with disabilities in its workforce and therefore encourages applications from such qualified individuals.

Furthermore, the Max Planck Society seeks to increase the number of women in those areas where they are underrepresented and therefore explicitly encourages women to apply.

Application documents: The application documents include a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, and copies of High School diploma (or bachelor diploma), as well as certificates/transcripts concerning any other previous qualifications (such as English language certificate).

The application deadline is 31 July 2021. The application documents must be collected in one PDF document, and must be sent exclusively via email to: bewerbungen@mpil.de.